

International Women's Day

International Women's Day was celebrated by Rajah Serfoji Govt. College, Thanjavur on 11.03.2015. Celebration started with the invocation of the students. Dr. S. Suguna, Associate Prof of Economics welcomed the gathering. Dr. Anbazhagan, Principal of the college delivered the presidential address. Dr. D. Rosy, Head, Dept of Tamil delivered the speech of introduction and theme of celebration. Dr. M. Piat Ris Margaret, Regional Joint Director of Collegiate Education, Thanjavur in her special address insisted on the women's rights and how far they have to be aware in the field of politics, education, employment and social life. She added that the international women's day was originally commemorated by the working women of the garment factory as they protest against their right. In those days they had been exploited by extracting more work with less pay. They protest for their voting right and to put an end for child labors. Selvi S. Sivasankari, Research Scholar proposed the vote of thanks.

